

Having been a post-doc at UCSF for one year, I have come to realize how much power our Union has for globally improving post-doctoral scholars living and working conditions. Becoming Head Stewards would give me the opportunity to contribute to further unifying UCSF post-docs, and working hands in hands with the University to further better post-doctoral life and work environments, for the overarching sake of Science.